

BOSTON HARBOR

HOTEL
at Rowes Wharf

ROUND OF A PAWS, PLEASE

Boston offers a variety of parks and places to pamper your pup, from welcoming patios to a visit to the Polkadog Bakery in the neighboring North End and Seaport neighborhoods. There are numerous parks and watering spots throughout the city where you can bring your furry friend.

Whether you're looking for a drinking buddy at the Cisco Brewers in the Seaport, treating your pooch to J.P. Licks in Beacon Hill for a pet-friendly sorbet, or simply enjoying a meal out, bon appétit to your dog-friendly adventures! Get set to delve into this guide for pet-friendly places around the city.

PET APPROVED RESTAURANTS

- Trillium Beer Garden
- Cisco Brewers Beer Garden
- 75 on Liberty Wharf
- Yellow Door Taqueria
- Lily's Bar and Pizza Patio
- James Hook & Co.
- Granary Tavern
- Pasta Beach
- Salty Pig

Pets are welcomed seasonally in outdoor spaces at the above restaurants. We encourage you to verify that these restaurants continue to welcome your furry friends, as their offerings may change.

